Dear Stakeholders (Learners, Parents/Carers, Apprentices, Employers, Staff and Directors),

Eid Al Adha – Friday 6th June

As you are aware, LDE UTC has a diverse and multi-cultural community with a significant proportion of learners and staff being Muslim. Having now looked at the number of staff and learners celebrating, the college will be closed to all learners on Friday 6th June except for those that are sitting the examinations below. For those of you who do not know what Eid-Al-Adha is or would like to join in the celebrations with our Muslim colleagues, you can read more information here from BBC Bitesize.

Learners sitting the following examinations during the morning should attend as normal. They should arrive for 8.30am and will be dismissed at the end of their examination. Please note that the college restaurant will be open for break time snacks and for lunch for those learners sitting exams in the afternoon.

GCSE English
GCSE Geography (pm)
A Level Further Mechanics (pm)

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you Eid Mubarak in preparation for the upcoming Eid celebrations.

Yours sincerely,

Geoffrey Fowler
CEO & Principal
