

Furnaz Ahmed

Deputy Head of Teaching & Learning

Furnaz is passionate about driving academic excellence and shaping a curriculum that is both innovative and inclusive. With a drive for educational improvement and a track record of impactful leadership, Furnaz supports the strategic development of teaching and learning across the UTC.

Working closely with staff, students, and external stakeholders, Furnaz ensures that the delivery of education meets the highest standards, reflecting LDE UTC's commitment to preparing young people for future success in STEM industries.

With experience across diverse educational settings, Furnaz brings insight, integrity, and a collaborative approach to leadership—driving improvement while keeping student progress at the heart of all initiatives.