

GILL LOIS

Apprenticeship Business Lead & Equality, Diversity, and Inclusion Advocate

Gill Lois is a key member of the Engineering Schools College at LDE, where she holds the role of Apprenticeship Business Lead. With a passion for fostering diversity and inclusion, Gill co-leads the college's EDI initiatives. Her accomplishments include securing the Equaliteach EDI Gold Award and contributing to a successful Ofsted review visit.

As an expert in apprenticeships, Gill guides employers through the end-to-end process, from candidate selection to the EPA (End-Point Assessment). Her commitment ensures a seamless journey for both employers and apprentices.
