

Ishai Rimmer

Teacher of Art and Design

Ishai has been a practising artist for over 12 years and exhibited extensively in the UK. He completed his BA in Fine Art at Goldsmiths College and his MA in Fine Art-Painting at the Slade School of Art, UCL. Ishai also has extensive experience of working within London's commercial art world, where he worked as a Senior Art Technician and project-managed visual art projects.

Alongside his work as a Fine Artist and an Art Technician, Ishai has been regularly visiting schools, colleges and HE courses as a visiting artist, lecturer and tutor. In 2018, Ishai decided to dedicate himself to art education, and completed his PGCE at Goldsmiths College.

His aim in joining LDE UTC is to teach Art and Design in a way that will be challenging, relevant and exciting, so that learners can build the skills, open-mindedness and confidence that will open paths to careers for creative professionals.
