Why we collect and use this information

The LDE UTC uses school workforce data to:

- enable the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed;
- inform the development of recruitment and retention policies;
- support individuals so that they can be develop and excel;
- enable individuals to be paid

The lawful basis on which we process this information

The LDE UTC will collect and process its workforce information under Articles 6 and 9 of the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), which come into force on 25 May 2018 – i.e. under:

- Consent: the individual has given clear consent for the LDE UTC to process their personal data for a specific purpose.
- Contract: the processing is necessary for drawing up and fulfilling the contract of employment.
- Legal obligation: the processing is necessary for the LDE UTC to comply with the law particularly with regards safeguarding students and complying with health and safety requirements.
- Public task: the processing is necessary for the LDE UTC to be able to provide appropriate information to both the DfE and ESFA and DfE to comply with requirements (such as the annual School Workforce Census) to be able to continue to operate and receive public funds as a state funded school. Details of DfE Data Collections can be found at:
<https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>

Collecting this information

- Whilst the majority of information provided by individuals to the LDE UTC is mandatory, some of it will be provided on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with data protection legislation, the LDE UTC will inform individuals whether they are required to provide certain school workforce information or if they have a choice in providing this information or not.

Storing this information

LDE UTC will hold school workforce data for seven years after which it will be destroyed and or deleted safely and confidentially.

Who we share this information with

The LDE UTC will routinely share this information with:

- the Department for Education (DfE)
- the Education and Skills Funding Agency

Why we share school workforce information

The LDE UTC will not share information about workforce members with anyone without consent unless the law and its policies allow it to do so.

Department for Education (DfE)

The LDE UTC will share personal data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins workforce policy monitoring, evaluation, and links to school funding / expenditure and the assessment educational attainment.

The LDE UTC is required to share information about its students with the (DfE) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

Data collection requirements

The DfE collects and processes personal data relating to those employed by schools (including Multi Academy Trusts) and local authorities that work in state funded schools (including all maintained schools, all academies, free schools, UTCs and all special schools including Pupil Referral Units and Alternative Provision). All state funded schools are required to make a census submission because it is a statutory return under sections 113 and 114 of the Education Act 2005

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education including the data that we share with them, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

The Department may share information about school employees with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children or the effective deployment of school staff in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure that the confidentiality of personal data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access to it and its use. Decisions on whether DfE releases personal data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested; and
- the arrangements in place to securely store and handle the data

To be granted access to school workforce information, organisations must comply with its strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.
